

BETTER WHEN IT'S BONKERS

BONKERS Fuggler is not your average dog toy. Some toys dream of cuddles. BONKERS Fugglers dream of being devoured by slobbery jaws and tossed into a tornado of chaos. Tough enough to survive a stampede, squeaky enough to make your dog question reality, and deranged enough to enjoy it, this toy is here for one purpose— maximum chompocalypse. Whether your dogs into chewing, tugging, or causing a scene in the living room, this plush toy was made for maximum mayhem. It's the kind of toy that gets dragged everywhere, slept on, and is never too far from your dog's side.
