LALPROBIOME

FROM LALLEMAND ANIMAL NUTRITION

LALPROBIOME IS LALLEMAND ANIMAL NUTRITION'S PLATFORM OF INNOVATIVE MICROBIAL SOLUTIONS TAILORED FOR PETS.

A LONG HISTORY OF EXCELLENCE

With over 160 years of expertise, LALLEMAND is a global leader in the science of fermentation producing yeast and bacteria. We master all steps of the production process from strain selection, to ensuring product quality, consistency, safety and efficacy in our 48 plants all over the world.

DRIVEN BY INNOVATION, SUPPORTED BY R&D

LALLEMAND invests in pet focused research and development programs based on microbial ecosystems that harnesses the latest advances in microbiology and science to bring you the most innovative, credible and research proven solutions.

SHARING KNOWLEDGE AND LEADING THE WAY

The LALLEMAND team of pet experts and our network of internationally recognized veterinarians, nutritionists and scientists are here to support you. We strive to have a customer-first approach in developing customized and highly specific microbial products that best fit your precise and unique needs.

We ensure optimal application and efficacy of the LALPROBIOME solutions through your petfood, treat or pet supplement production processes and continue to lead the way with product innovation and support.

MEETING THE CHALLENGES OF TOMORROW

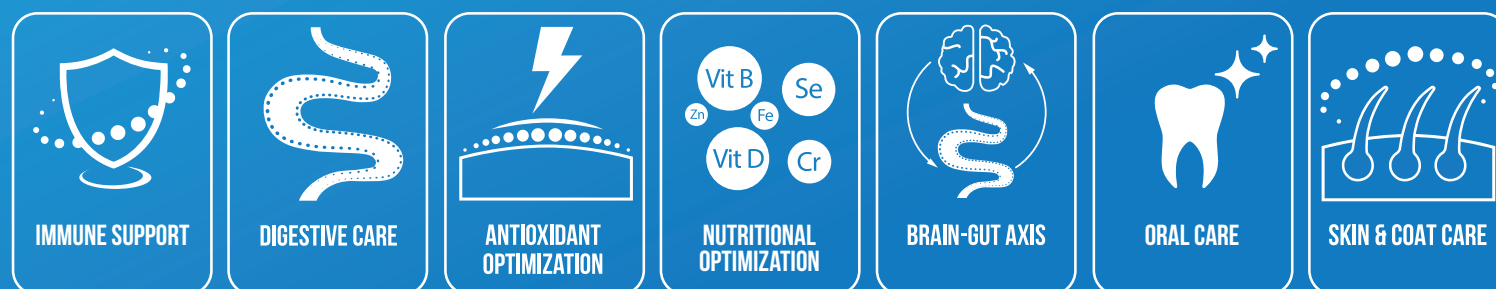

LALPROBIOME solutions leverage the natural power of yeast and bacteria with cutting edge science to support pet health and well-being.

From digestive care to immune support, antioxidant optimization to cognitive function, LALPROBIOME offers a broad range of innovative microbial solutions to meet the needs of pets and their owners today and for the future.

A HEALTHY PET STARTS FROM WITHIN.

LALPROBIOME pet solutions can help you to elevate and differentiate your brands with novel ingredients that support unique and specific benefits.
