CON HUMOR

Las gorras de béisbol de Gucci Supreme se rinden al humor. Así su frontal y su logo dejan lugar para los estampados más divertidos. La de la abeja es una de ellas, pero también está la versión de la serpiente roel, del búho, del tigre y del gato enfadado.

Oro y rubí

Cada año esta pajarita se lleva las mejores notas en las guías; quizá porque fue concebida como joya por un diseñador de tradición familiar y así lo elabora con esmaltes muy frescos, y eso se nota en su gracia y su color rubí muy intenso.

VIAJEROS IMAGINARIOS

Se trata de una nueva iniciativa de Médicos sin Fronteras que tiene la apariencia de una web de viajes, pero en lugar de escapados gestiona kits de ayuda humanitaria. De ahí su lema: "El primer portal de viajes desde tu no viaje, pero tu misión sí". El contenido de cada lema varía según el destino y la donación: maternidad en Siria, agua y saneamiento en Nigeria; refugiados en Bangladesh; desnutrición en Etiopía o salud mental en Colombia; entre otras iniciativas.

MASCOTAS FELICES

Un mercado que se amplía sin cesar y en distintos sectores. El de la tecnología, con la cámara que les vigila y por la que pueden verse, como y mascotas, a través de la pantalla. Los accesorios estéticos, como los nuevos modelos exclusivos de collares de terciopelo y colchetas de Bratt Barcelona. Y productos innovadores, como la chaqueta ajustable (en la foto), pensada para aportar presión al cuerpo del can y así darle seguridad cuando está solo o siente ansiedad por ruidos o fuegos artificiales. OUR HISTORY

2010 / Marta Huguet and Marc Velasco adopted Nela. They could not find a collar according to their style. Marc with the help of his grandmother sewed their first collar using a summer cloth and a bag strap.

2011 / The collar was a success, to the point that people on the street noticed it and stopped to ask where the collar was from.

From that day on, they thought that all pets could walk with style, like Nela.

2012 / The name Brott was the beginning of this project. They wanted to modernize the sector of pets, and start the project from zero.

2013 / They launched e-commerce www.brottdog.com with the slogan STYLISH DOG COLLARS. And first FW1314 collections began to be seen by media and social networks. The 080 Barcelona Catwalk welcomed them as the brand that combines design with functionality for people with good taste.

2014 / The number of #brottlvers grew, bloggers and influencers walk their pets with Brott and shops are interested in the product. Brott team is consolidated with the incorporation of Lupe in the workshop, and with sales experts.

2015 / The Brott collars are recognized on the streets as accessories of quality. The Dog Care Brott is launched for pet care. After consolidating its network of stores in Spain, Brott begins its phase of globalization, starting with the main European capitals.

2016 / Summer season we introduced the new line of High Quality Dog Beds to share your life with your dog. Meanwhile Brott collaborates with major publishers photographers and stylists. And still getting fans around the world thanks to its elegant collections.

2017 / Brott grows with two new incorporations, Anna in confection department and Lara in Communication. Our main aim is give an excellent custom service in all areas. The range of products have been expanded and start emerging the firsts harness at the end of the year.

2018 / Brott patterns are unique and the brand lovers start claiming vociferously an elegant coat easy to wear in. This Autumn- winter the coolest ones can walk with a beastly Coat.

2019/ We started working on a new range of dog bedding.

2020/ Launch a new range of walking products called PURE. "Thanks to these 10 years of Brott, we have merged our vocation with the explosion of colours of more than 10 collections".

We pay tribute to these years of work and to the adoption of Nela, without her this would not have been possible, by launching this exclusive collection of two-tone martingale collars for everyone.

2021/ We are present at international fairs, like Maison&Objet in Paris.
