

Used cold chamber die casting machines

We are your experts around used die casting machines

It does not matter whether you are interested in a casting cell with corresponding peripheral equipment or are looking for only a cold chamber die casting. We, at Fiss, are experienced experts when it comes to buying and selling used die casting machines for the foundry industry.

In order for cold chamber die casting machines to work as economically as possible for a long time, the quality of the peripheral equipment is decisive. In addition to a partial or complete overhaul of the die casting machine, we also offer various new and used peripherals for automation.

More than 30 years of experience and correspondingly successful dismantling and reassembly of used equipment for the foundry industry prove our expertise. In addition to highly qualified engineers and technicians, we offer you a comprehensive all-round service, ranging from dismantling and overhauling the machine to taking over the logistics, assembly and instruction at the new location.

Reconditioning of die casting machines!

Reconditioning of cold chamber