

Information security for employees

The number of cyber attacks on companies is increasing daily. That's why the German Federal Office for Information Security (BSI) recommends regular staff training. In our innovative e-learning course, your employees take on the role of a hacker and learn about the most important types of cyberattacks. Start immediately and strengthen your human firewall.

Start demo→ Contact us 50 minutes Mobile-friendly 25+ languages Certificate

Content of the e-learning course

1. How do I identify phishing emails?
2. What is social engineering and how do I recognise fraudsters?
3. How do I handle mobile devices securely?
4. How do I strengthen information security in my office?
5. How do I work securely with external people?
6. How do I properly deal with cybersecurity breaches?

Format

- Online
- SCORM
- AICC
- TinCAN/xAPI

Usage

- lawpilots online platform
- Internal LMS

Employee training that sets new standards

Innovative learning methodology

High motivation through engaging storytelling, a diverse design world, adaptive and playful learning, and accessibility.

Exceptional expertise

Our employee training courses are multi-award winning, developed with legal experts and educational psychologists, always up-to-date and forward-looking.