

CIVIL ★ ARMS

Taking on the world...
Together.

A large American flag is shown waving in the wind, filling the background of the page. The flag is slightly out of focus, emphasizing the text in the foreground. The stars and stripes are clearly visible, though the colors are somewhat muted due to the overall dark and desaturated aesthetic of the image.

CIVIL ARMS INC.,

We supply International dealers, distributors and individuals with firearms and accessories which are available in the United States.

We specialize in direct sales, freight consolidation, importing/exporting licensing, freight forwarding, consulting and compliance training. Our staff has over 25 years of experience in the firearms industry: importing and exporting firearms and accessories as well as customs brokerage and logistics.

Most of our business is oriented towards commercial sales. We offer our international customers the lowest price possible, consolidation of shipments and appropriate licensing. Our compliance expert always ensures that all transactions are in accordance with the most recent regulations. WE BRING THE BEST THE USA HAS TO OFFER, WORLDWIDE.

Civil Arms number one priority is compliance; every account is vetted prior to being opened. New accounts are required to fill in a vetting form that is subsequently sent for an Embassy check and a Thomson Reuters examination. We select new accounts located only in low-corruption countries that are trusted by the State and Commerce Departments.

RISK REDUCTION, COST SAVINGS, INCREASED REVENUES

Civil Arms Inc., located in Skowhegan, Maine, is a fully-licensed distributor, importer and exporter of firearms and maintains full registrations with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Commerce.

EXPAND YOUR BUSINESS INTERNATIONALLY

The experienced and knowledgeable staff at Civil Arms works directly with the U.S. government agencies to ensure timely processing and compliant shipments. Civil Arms will provide you with rapid turnaround, superb customer service and competitive pricing.
