Nutrience
SUBZERO®

With an almost four-decade legacy, the Nutrience brand is deeply rooted in cherished family values and a profound love and appreciation for pets. This, along with fresh Canadian-sourced ingredients, minimally-processed freeze-dried raw nutrition, and an unwavering commitment to quality, converge to create every bag of Nutrience SubZero pet food – our pinnacle in pet nutrition.

We proudly source our ingredients from the 9.98 million square kilometers of lakes, oceans, and farmland stretching from the Maritimes to the Pacific coast to bring the very best ingredients to your pet’s bowl.

This exceptional collection showcases whole-prey, high-protein formulas, available in a diverse array of formats. From the time-honored classic recipes to our thoughtfully curated limited ingredient and 100% freeze-dried variations, each option is designed to cater to the unique preferences and nutritional needs of every pet and pet parent alike.
